

Dear Bob,

I am doing you and everyone else a favor.

There is no future for me at this point. I am forever tainted by my past and it doesn't go away. I don't agree with certain things that are said about me and the latest one about the order I supposedly gave to GL is a lie but no matter what I say about this it isn't going to go away as somehow I am considered part of those two because I used a sausage as a dildo on Cathy in 1979.

I have thought very hard about this and have not slept for most of the night for the last two days. It has been going on for years and I see no end in sight. I thought that I had come out of it by getting somewhere with the BBC handling, and while it wasn't perfect, I did everything I knew how to do to turn around the disaster. But then things became impossible again, and I don't know how to deal with it any more. I have introverted and introspected on why I am like I am and what else I have done and my evil purposes until I cannot take it any more.

My being around is a constant reminder of everything that is wrong or bad. I am now causing hardship on others (yourself included) because of my condition and I don't wish that on them. At this point, I do not think it is a resolvable situation, I have been on a rollercoaster since 2003 that I cannot get off and I cannot go on playing this game any more.

I don't want to leave my family, but I think I am hurting them more by being around. Cathy goes through hell and is constantly sick and this will just end the cycle for her. Taryn will be devastated, but she will get over it and then not have to worry about me constantly. I don't know about Benjamin, I have not been in comm. with him for years.

I really don't have a plan other than to find somewhere to go that I won't be obvious or create problems. I don't know where that will be or even how to get there. At this point, I just want to not be in a state of constant fear and turmoil about what is going to happen to me tomorrow. I am not winning and I am not happy and have no idea where to turn other than to go away.

I know I have put you in an untenable position that you didn't want. I am sorry about that. But now that can be ended cycle on too.

When I have someplace to stay I will be in touch.

Mike
